APPENDIX A

MILITARY DEPUTIES ELECTED TO THE SUPREME SOVIET 1946-58

Listed below are the names of military deputies elected to the Supreme Soviet during 1946-58. These lists constitute the basis for the calculations made in this research aid.

For the 1946, 1950, and 1954 All-Union elections, lists of elected deputies holding military rank were made available. The list for the 1958 All-Union election was compiled from official election returns, which for the first time directly identified those deputies holding military rank and in some cases indicated the position occupied by these individuals. All other deputies listed in the 1958 returns were identified by occupation.

These lists were examined with reference to various military biographic files in order to identify those deputies who in addition to holding rank were also actually subordinate to the Ministry of Defense* at the time of their election. Only those deputies known or thought to be so subordinate were included in the final lists which appear below. Therefore, the lists exclude, for example, members of the security forces, military members of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet, officials of DOSAAF, and academicians who held military rank at the time of their election.

It should be pointed out that no claims of absolute accuracy can be made for these lists. Some deputies may be included who were not actually subordinate to the Ministry of Defense at the time of their election, and conversely some deputies who should have been included may not be listed. Although the range of error in the number of deputies cannot be determined in a mathematical sense, it is considered to be quite small, and in the case of 1958 probably nonexistent because of the more complete reporting in the official returns.

* In 1946 the Ministry of Armed Forces and in 1950 the Ministries of War and Navy.

 Volunteer Society for Cooperation with the Army, Aviation, and Fleet (Dobrovol'noye Obshchestvo Sodeystviya Armii, Aviatsii i Flotu -- DOSAAF).
